Honor & Integrity... A Foundation You Can Count On!™

Before

Living Room

Clean, modern lines in the trim, and the stone going cleanly up the entire face of the protruding wall. All of the trim was painted white for a fresh look. New carpet and cabinet hardware completed the new look.

Transformation from Traditional to Modern

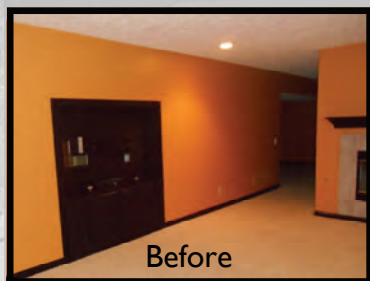

An entire home is removed from the '80s and rejuvenated as a modern home with a classic twist.

Dining Room

The muntins were removed from the windows, and the walls, ceiling, and trim were painted. The clients worked with an interior designer to plan the arrangement and acquire the new furnishings to give the room the right feel.

Overall Entertainment Area

Custom built-in Entertainment Center

Before

The brick and trim were painted, the muntins were removed, and moldings were added.

Two walls, and the tile floor were removed, and wood flooring was installed to match the existing.

The bar shape was changed for better flow.

The cabinets were updated, and were moved up to the ceiling.

Before

The dining area was converted to a cozy sitting area.

Office

The trim was painted gray, and the panels were refinished with a darker stain. This adds contrast to the room, and makes a modern statement, while still hinting at the classic style.

Vanity

The vanity was updated to separate mirrors, undermount sinks, and modern fixtures. It uses the same marble found on the tub deck and in the kitchen.

Shower

The shower went from dark and dim to shining bright. A frameless shower door adds to the light, airy feeling of this area.

HVAC Duct Cleaning Coupon

Did you know that GuyCo offers a coupon for duct cleaning? It is recommended that you have your HVAC ducts cleaned every 3-5 years. Over time dust build up in your HVAC ducts, and can contribute to allergies, lower the efficiency of your HVAC system, and can even cause premature equipment failure. Please note that GuyCo protects vents and HVAC equipment from dust while we are working in your home. However, it is still possible for dust to enter the ducts before or after we are working. If you are interested in this service, feel free to ask us during your consultation appointment about the options available to you.
